

I certinly do not want to be disturbed over and over again in the evening by telemarketers calling me. Nor do I want a bunch of messages cluttering up my answering machine. I enjoy my evenings spent uninturrupted with my family. I greatly support wisconsin's do not call law and would hate to see the Federal government overrule it.